

Local News

: Personals :

Geo. Morrison was noted among the young men in town Saturday.

Mac Wright of Route 2, was here Saturday for several hours.

Rev. Archie Ware, colored, of Mt. Carmel, was in town Saturday.

J. H. Hall of Route 4, was in town Saturday on business.

Mrs. John Nickles of Hodges, was here Saturday shopping.

S. E. Ferguson was here Saturday on business.

J. C. Dansby and family of Bethia, was in town Saturday.

R. H. Stevenson was here for the day Saturday.

J. M. Fisher of Level Land, was here for the day on Friday.

A. B. Robinson of Long Cane, was in the city last Saturday for several hours.

Mrs. Bert Ferguson and daughter, Eva, of near Honea Path, were in town Saturday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Ferguson of near Honea Path, were in town on Saturday for the day.

W. F. Langley of Route 4, was in town Saturday. He thinks The Press and Banner is fine.

Hugh Bowen of Level Land, was in the city Friday looking after his affairs.

Mrs. Ernest Hanvey of Troy, visited at Mrs. Elbert White's several days last week.

Misses Belle and Margaret McKenzie of Sharon, were in town last week.

Jas. Palmer was in the city Friday, accompanied by one of his bright, little granddaughters.

Mrs. A. M. Reid and her daughter, Mary, were in the city Saturday shopping in our stores.

Everybody wants to read The Press and Banner. How many are there who read it subscribe for it?

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hagen and Katie Bell, came to see the Gibson Family Reunion Thursday night.

J. F. Stricklin and Ernest Minton of Route 3, were in town Saturday. Mr. Stricklin was selling cotton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Ellis from Due West, spent Friday in town attending to business and shopping.

Mrs. Norris and daughter, Allie May, and sister, Miss Lily Smith, were in the city Saturday.

Mrs. John Brunson went down to Columbia to see about getting a house. They will move there in the near future.

Misses Eleanor Todd, Mary Kennedy, Ruth McLane and Dick Todd attended the Gibson Family Reunion at the opera house Thursday night.

Private Ervin Kirby of Camp Jackson, is home visiting his kin-people in town and in the country. He spent a few days with his sister Mrs. J. C. Beauford here last week.

Misses Allie and Florence Knight from near Due West spent Friday in town. They purchased a number of new records for their Victrola at McMurray's.

Lieut. Gottlob A. Neuffer, Jr., of Camp Sevier, spent Saturday night and Sunday here with his home people.

Dr. G. A. Neuffer spent last Friday at Camp Sevier with his son, Lieut. G. A. Neuffer. He made the trip through the country and was accompanied by his young sons, Frank, Happoldt and Claude.

G. H. McGhee of Chester, spent Sunday here with friends.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hill spent Sunday afternoon in Greenwood.

Leonard Whitlock spent Sunday in Greenwood with relatives.

Mrs. T. W. King was called to McCormick Sunday on account of the illness of her little granddaughter.

Lieut. Owen Speed of Camp Jackson, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Allen and bright little son went over to Greenwood Sunday afternoon.

News from Miss Plevna Seal says that she is greatly improved. She is at Dr. Pryor's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Campbell and young son, Alvin, were in the city Saturday for the day.

J. E. Palmer of Route 1, was in the city on Saturday attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Simpson and two bright young daughters, Sallie and Zula, from near Lowndesville, were in town Saturday.

Mrs. D. A. Dewey leaves today for New York, and before returning home she will visit in Canada. She will be away a week.

An automobile party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cason, Mrs. Mims and Miss Daisy Maxwell spent Sunday afternoon in Greenwood.

Sergt. M. Buchanan, Jr., of 105th Field Signal Battalion, Camp Sevier was in the city Saturday and Sunday with friends.

W. F. Kay from near Santuc, was in town Saturday. He subscribes for The Press and Banner and says it sure is a good paper.

R. H. Armstrong of Due West, came to town Saturday just to see if everything was as usual. His trip was one for pleasure and not for business.

C. B. Walker and his son George, paid a visit to The Press and Banner office Saturday. Mr. Walker in renewing his subscription, said that he couldn't do without his paper.

Privates Oscar Stevenson, John Calvert, Charlie Armor, Claude Wilkinson and Mack Reid came down from Camp Sevier to spend Sunday with home people.

Mrs. W. T. Bradley and Mrs. Fannie Thompson were in Abbeville last Thursday looking after business and spending the night with Mrs. J. F. Bradley.

Messrs. Andrew Ferguson, Callie Ellis and S. A. Cochran made an automobile trip to Columbia Saturday returning Sunday. They spent the time with friends and also visited Camp Jackson.

Mr. A. S. Thomas went down to Columbia and took in the big time the Shriners were having there last Thursday. He made the trip in his car, joining the Greenwood delegation.

Capt. F. S. Evans and J. E. Crymes were over from Greenwood last Thursday taking a look at a live town and looking over our cotton market which is a cent or two higher than the Greenwood market.

Hubert Cox was in town Sunday. He wore a handsome uniform and looked like a Major General. He has been moved from Camp Jackson to Camp Sevier, Greenville, which he says is "a nice little town."

Miss Kennedy, one of Abbeville's graded school teachers, went up to Due West Friday and spent until Sunday afternoon with her home people. She made the trip in a big automobile accompanied by a handsome and happy looking young man.

Mrs. Sallie Martin came to Abbeville last Thursday and attended the entertainment in the Opera House given by the ladies of the Associate Reformed church. She enjoyed the show but said the old-time Seceders were not accustomed to such. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harris.

Mrs. Leonard McIlwain was in the city Saturday shopping.

Editor E. C. Horton and Mrs. Horton spent a couple of days in Trenton this week.

Preston Speed of Camp Sevier, spent the week-end here with his parents.

J. H. Greene of the Gilgal section, was among the farmers in the city Saturday.

Everybody is talking about how good the Press & Banner is since we started our semi-weekly.

MRS. VIRGINIA GAMBRELL ZIMMERMAN IS DEAD

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gambrell received a telegram yesterday stating that their daughter, Virginia, was dead. She had an attack of ptomaine poisoning and was operated on. Peritonitis set in which caused her death. She was ill only a few days and her death is a great shock to the family and to the town. Her husband, Mr. Zimmerman, will leave DuLuth Wednesday for Abbeville with the remains. She leaves two little children. Great sympathy is felt for the family.

MRS. HAROLD.

Mrs. William Harold of Bainbridge, Ga., spent the week-end with Mrs. Annie Harris. She was returning home from Augusta, where she attended the meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs.

CALHOUN HASKELL.

Calhoun Haskell spent the week-end here. He has a position with the Victor Manufacturing Co., at Greers. He is doing fine and looks well.

LIKE A LETTER.

Private W. W. Keller spent several days here last week with his home people. He has been changed from Camp Jackson to Camp Sevier. He enjoys the Press and Banner as though it was a letter from home.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

I will offer for sale, at Abbeville Court House, S. C., on Salesday in December, at auction, in front of the Court House, to the highest bidder, the following described real estate; to wit: Lot No. 43, in Block 2 as shown by map of Calhoun Falls; said lot facing on street leading from Hotel in Calhoun Falls to the Depot and said lot having a store room thereon twenty-five feet by sixty feet with rooms in the rear, wherein J. H. Hammond resides.

TERMS OF SALE—CASH. Purchaser to pay for papers.

D. H. HILL, Attorney in Fact.

MAY RELIEVE MOVIE GOERS.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Moving picture theatres and other amusement places may pay a war tax of one cent for each ten cents admission charge without collecting it from the patrons Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper ruled yesterday.

SPECIAL CATHOLIC SERVICES.

Julian Roche went up to Greenville Saturday. Then to Spartanburg where he attended the special services for the soldiers in the Catholic church Sunday. The Bishop was there to conduct the services.

J. H. CLAMP.

J. H. Clamp from near Honea Path, came down Friday to see after his taxes. He is a prosperous farmer in every sense. He has bought a new home in the town of Honea Path for several thousand dollars, paying cash for it. He doesn't owe a cent to anyone but has money in the bank.

CEMETERY SOCIETY MEETS.

The Long Cane Cemetery Society will meet this afternoon, (Tuesday) at four o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. D. Wilson.

GREENWOOD AUTO PARTY.

An automobile party composed of Mrs. L. D. Caldwell, Miss Eulalie Turner, Miss Turner, Miss Edna Magill, Messrs Jas. Brinkley and Gaines Hammond came over from Greenwood to take in the Gibson Family Reunion last Thursday night

Quality Always Known Price Always the Same the Nation Over

Men know that Styleplus Clothes $17 are advertised year after year, from coast to coast—that is their assurance that these clothes are what the makers claim.

They also know that they pay the same as every other man.

Styleplus Clothes $17

Trade Mark Registered

The same price the nation over

They are guaranteed for wear and satisfaction. They are all wool fabrics. They have that real style that men recognize at a glance—a great designer fashions them. They are carefully tailored by one of the largest and most experienced organizations. Great variety of models and patterns. Even the hard to fit can be easily satisfied.

The New Styleplus Grade at $21
We are also showing greater variety of fabrics and models. Suits and overcoats.

Parker & Reese

SOCIAL NEWS.

The Mothers Club met at the Community House Tuesday afternoon of last week. Twenty-three mothers were present. A most interesting talk about "Schools" was made by Prof. Riser.

CASON-BAILEY

Mrs. Ida Cason and Mr. J. F. Bailey of Columbia were quietly married at the home of the brides sister Mrs. Fred Cason at 4:00 Saturday Nov. 3rd. Rev. J. L. Daniels performed the ceremony after which a splendid dinner was enjoyed by those present. Only the immediate family was present. Mr. and Mrs. Baily left for Columbia where they will make their home in the future. The good wishes of their friends go with them.

SOLD LARGEST NUMBER

The young girls and boys that sold tickets for the Gibson Family Reunion last week did exceptionally well. Miss Lessie Kay should have special mention for she sold over $30.00 worth which was the largest amount sold by any individual.

WORK ON HOUSE.

Mrs. J. R. White has just recovered her home in Fort Pickens. She intends to add another piazza to the side of the house which will make a fine addition.

IMPROVES HOME.

W. H. Long is having a couple of new rooms added on his house near the Baptist church, which will improve the looks greatly.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

Next Thursday, Nov. 15, is the last day on which packages for the soldiers in France can be mailed in order to reach them by Christmas. Seven pounds is the limit in weight. All packages must be packed so that they may be inspected by the Postal authorities. The customary words such as, "Merry Christmas," "Do not open until Christmas," etc., may be written on the outside of the package.

BIRTHS.

Born—At Abbeville, Nov. 10, 1917, to Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Neely, a daughter.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller, Oct. 31, 1917, a son, Eugene Frank, Jr.

OUR THANKS.

The Ladies Parsonage Aid Society of the A. R. P. church takes this method of thanking the people of Abbeville for their liberal patronage of their entertainment last Thursday night. We appreciate your presence and the many kind remarks made of the show.

Our thanks are especially due to Chief Johnson and the city council, for courtesies, Capt. Perrin for the use of the court house, and Mr. Verchott for his unfailing kindness and attention in the Opera House.

We are deeply gratified to the young people and children who took part and were unfailing in their attendance on rehearsals, thereby assuring the success of the entertainment. We appreciate your help and patronage and thank you sincerely.

Mrs. Foster McLane,
Mrs. C. H. McMurray,
Mrs. Wm. P. Greene.

TRESPASS NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that persons trespassing upon the lands of the undersigned for the purpose of hunting or for any other purpose without our consent, will be prosecuted under the criminal statutes.

Robert Pettigrew,
Luther Link,
Joe Link,
John Link,
Jas. A. Link.

11-13-3.

OUR COUNTY.

Financially our county is in good shape. We owe only $5001.85. The indebtedness for our fine court house has been paid in full and also the expense of the new steel bridges necessary after the 1909 freshet.

Supervisor Stevenson intends to do some mighty good work on the roads on the co-operative plan as soon as the farmers get their crops in.

WANTS

FOUND:—At the Opera House last Thursday night, a fraternity pin with initials "W. R. T." on it. Owner can have same by paying cost of this ad.

The Press and Banner.

It will pay you to sell your hides and old auto tires to H. Bruce Fant, at Lesley Brick Yard place, on Antreville road. Highest wholesale prices. Old auto tires 4 1/2 c. per lb. Mule and horse hides 3.00 each. Cow hides 19c. H. Bruce Fant, Mgr. Abbeville Branch of Athens Hide and Rubber Co., Athens, Ga. 3mo.

NEW SCHEDULE ON SEABOARD.

South
No. 5	1:16 P. M.
No. 29	3:52 P. M.
No. 11	3:04 A. M.
No. 17	5:00 A. M.
North
No. 30	12:34 P. M.
No. 6	5:54 P. M.
No. 12	1:39 A. M.
No. 18	10:00 P. M.

BAPTIST BAZAAR.

The Philathea Class of the Baptist church will have a Bazaar Dec. 11th and 12th in the store of the Hall Investment Co., next to Barksdale's store.

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

We desire our correspondents in the different communities to furnish us with a news letter as often as possible. Also try to send us in a few new subscribers for we are trying to increase our list by adding 500 new ones by the first of the year.

AUTO TRUCKS FOR COUNTY.

Supervisor W. A. Stevenson has just received two one-ton Maxwell trucks for the county. They are to replace some of the mules and to be used for road improvement and transporting road material and so forth. They are fine and will be of great help in that they will complete the work in a much shorter time than could be done as heretofore.